

ADULT AND COMMUNITY EDUCATION

Making Connections Conference

23-24 October 2009
Central TAFE, Leederville Campus

THE RHYTHM OF LEARNING: THE BEAT GOES ON

Trainers, providers, administrators and others interested in the area of Adult and Community Education (ACE) are invited to share their knowledge, skills and experiences at the Making Connections Conference 2009.

The conference will provide professional development to practitioners and volunteers in the field of adult and community education. It is an opportunity to challenge, inspire and inform participants with current thinking and emerging trends in ACE in areas such as:

- building pathways in life long learning
- sustainable learning
- engaging a diversity of learners in ACE
- partnerships and collaboration between ACE and VET
- recognising and valuing non formal learning
- overcoming barriers to learning
- developing the skills of ACE providers.

Calls for expressions of interest to present a workshop will close at 12 noon, Friday, 3 July 2009.
